

Think you might like to weave baskets...Do you love the feel of natural material...Do you love the old traditional crafts or the old crafts with a new twist?

The Central Texas Basket Guild...

is a group of individuals with the common interest in perpetuating the art of basketry.

The meetings/weaving location is held every other month at the HEB in the Mueller Market District 1801 E. 51st St. Austin, TX 78723. At the meetings, we meet very little and mainly weave. The skill level of the members ranges from total beginners to very experienced. You are welcome and encouraged to attend one meeting without being a member if you would like to see what we are all about first.

Our CTBG Members are very welcoming and attentive to newcomers who need help – so please come try us out! If you decide to become a member, annual dues are a bargain at $20, or $10 after July 1.
